

Scripps News debuts new travel photography series

Oct. 2, 2024

ATLANTA – Scripps News will take viewers to the world's most photographable places in a new travel photography series, "Photowalks on Scripps News," hosted by Jefferson Graham. The series, which premieres Oct. 5, is a virtual photowalk that also provides tips on how to get pro-level vacation photos with your phone.

Graham is a former USA TODAY columnist who fronted the "Talking Tech" video series and podcast, a working Los Angeles area photographer and a longtime Scripps News contributor. Previously, his "PhotowalksTV" series has traveled across the U.S. and internationally to Spain, Italy, Portugal, Japan, Canada, Mexico and France.

"I am a huge believer in the power of free, over-the-air TV and I love how Scripps is leading the cause and creating a great, objective product," Graham said, "I've received terrific feedback to my Photowalks segments for the Morning Rush program, and I'm thrilled to be able to expand them now into a weekly show."

"Photowalks on Scripps News" will air on Saturdays at 8 p.m. ET beginning Oct. 5 with a tour of Los Angeles, from the beaches to Hollywood. The episodes will show viewers how to get great shots of palm trees and action with your phone of the famous skateboarders of Venice beach.

Also coming up this season:

- Sicily: Join Graham on a visit to Italy's rustic island near the African coast, from historic Palermo and the gothic opera house and bustling food market to the thousands years old communities of Siracusa and Taormina, brought to life in HBO's "The White Lotus."
- Japan: Visit the electric "kitchen" of Japan, Osaka, and nearby port city Kobe, in this look at the Japan that doesn't usually get covered by the guidebooks, but should, the Kansai region.
- Big Sur: Join Graham on one of the most epic road trips in the world, the awe-inspiring California Highway 1 ride from Carmel to Hearst Castle. Have recent mudslides and road closures ruined the trip? Not necessarily. Graham shows how to manage the Big Sur experience under current conditions and see it all. This episode will air at 11 p.m. on Oct. 26.*
- Oregon Coast: Another of the all-time great road trips, the rocky, dramatic Oregon coast, from Astoria in the north down to Bandon, stopping at the great photo spots, like Newport, Cannon Beach and many of those iconic lighthouses.
